KANSAS CITY CHIEFS VS. BUFFALO BILLS

POSTGAME NOTES AFC DIVISIONAL GAME Jan. 23, 2022

CHIEFS EXTEND HOME PLAYOFF WINNING STREAK IN OVERTIME: With tonight's 42-36 overtime victory, the Chiefs have won six consecutive playoff games at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, extending the club's franchise record and tying for the 10th-longest home playoff winning streak in NFL history, dating back to the 1970 merger. It is currently the longest active postseason home winning streak in the NFL. The club has now qualified for the AFC Championship Game for the fourth-consecutive season, extending a franchise record and becoming just the seventh team in NFL history to play in at least four consecutive conference championship games. With Cincinnati's win vs. Tennessee yesterday and Kansas City's win today, the Chiefs become the first team in NFL history to host four consecutive conference championship games. The Chiefs had been tied with the 2002-04 Philadelphia Eagles (also coached by Head Coach Andy Reid) for the longest streak of consecutive home conference title games with three (2018-20). The club has now played in five overtime games in the postseason, going 3-2 (.600) in those contests.

REID TIES SHULA ON WIN CHART: With tonight's win, Head Coach Andy Reid tallied his 19th career postseason victory, tying PFHOF coach Don Shula (19) for the third-most career postseason wins by a head coach in NFL history. He now trails PFHOF coach Tom Landry (20) by one victory for a share of second place on the all-time list. Reid extended his franchise record for postseason wins by a head coach to nine with the victory, now owning more victories than the next two coaches in franchise history combined. He has 252 overall wins (regular and postseason) in his career, the fifth-most career wins by a head coach in NFL history. By advancing to a fourth consecutive AFC Championship Game with the Chiefs, Reid becomes the only coach in NFL history to reach four consecutive conference championship games two different times in his career, also earning four straight trips to the NFC Championship Game from 2001-04 as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles.

With 1,003 career receiving yards in the postseason, Hill joins an exclusive list of players to eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark in their postseason career. He becomes the 17th overall player to record at least 1,000 career receiving yards in the postseason and his 1,003 yards rank 16th all-time. He joins teammate TE Travis Kelce (1,196) as the second player in franchise history to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark for a career. Kelce now moved into eighth place for most career receiving yards in NFL history. Only five franchises in NFL history currently have two players with more than 1,000 career postseason receiving yards -- Dallas (Michael Irvin and Drew Pearson), New England (Julian Edelman and Rob Gronkowski), Oakland (Cliff Branch and Fred Biletnikoff), Pittsburgh (Hines Ward and John Stallworth) and Kansas City (Travis Kelce and Tyreek Hill). Of the five teams with two 1,000-yard receivers in their history, only three pairs were ever teammates at the same time -- Edelman and Gronkowski in New England, Branch and Biletnikoff in Oakland and Kelce and Hill in Kansas City.

CHIEFS AWARDED INTERNATIONAL MARKETING RIGHTS FOR GERMANY AND MEXICO AS PART OF NFL'S GLOBAL GROWTH

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The National Football League announced today that the Chiefs have been awarded International Home Marketing Area (IHMA) rights for Germany and Mexico as part of the global growth of professional football.

“We are thrilled with the league’s announcement today that the Chiefs have secured the international marketing rights to both Germany and Mexico,” Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt said. “My father, Lamar, founded the Chiefs and the American Football League in 1960 to introduce pro football to new fans in new regions of the country. Over the last three decades, the Chiefs have been at the forefront of the NFL’s global growth initiatives – building on the legacy of our founder to bring America’s game to new fans in new places. We look forward to building relationships with fans in Germany and Mexico and continuing to share the best of Chiefs Kingdom around the world.”

“We are currently enjoying the most successful period in franchise history, with some of the top players and coaches on the field as well as the support of a talented and dedicated business operations staff, and we believe we are uniquely positioned to be a leader in the NFL’s global growth,” Chiefs President Mark Donovan said. “We have an internal committee which has been leading our international efforts for multiple years and today’s announcement not only recognizes the hard work that went into this bid process, but it also signals the start of an exciting challenge for our team and opportunity for our fan base in the coming years.”

Beginning on Jan. 1, 2022, the club can start activating elements of its marketing plans in both countries, including posting on new localized Chiefs social media channels to engage fans, unveiling market/language-specific digital properties (Chiefs.com and Chiefs Mobile app), beginning paid advertising campaigns, signing local sponsorship deals, extending domestic sponsors internationally and aligning with local agencies with on-the-ground knowledge and expertise.

Longer-term, the club will invest in growing its fanbase in both markets through on-site activations and fan events, supporting and growing local youth FLAG Football participation, launching local merchandise sales initiatives, establishing partnerships with existing fan clubs, creating local community and social initiatives as well as exploring opportunities to play regular season games in the markets as part of the NFL’s new rotation of International Series games.

The Chiefs and the Hunt family have been involved in numerous international initiatives over the past three decades, investing in growing the game and its fanbase globally and helping showcase the best of the sport on the international stage. The club previously appeared in four American Bowl preseason contests – Berlin, Germany (1990), Tokyo, Japan (1994 and 1998) and Monterrey, Mexico (1996). Over the past seven years the club has played in two International Series regular season games, hosting the Detroit Lions at London’s Wembley Stadium in 2015 and taking on the Los Angeles Chargers at Mexico City’s Estadio Azteca in 2019.

In addition to international contests, Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt sits on the NFL's International Committee, having served as Chairman from 2011-18, advocating for the expansion of the league's international efforts and NFL's footprint overseas. Through the 2021 season, 31 teams have played a total of 30 regular season games in London, while the league has hosted three regular season games in Mexico since 2016. In addition, Chiefs Cheerleaders and KC Wolf have visited more than 60 military installations around the world to show support for the men and women serving overseas and the club also has more than 15,000 youth already participating in Chiefs FLAG Football leagues in both Mexico and France.

CHIEFS TO HOST BENGALS IN AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME SUNDAY; IMPORTANT FAN INFORMATION ANNOUNCED

CHIEFS VS. BENGALS, PRESENTED BY HY-VEE, KICKS OFF AT 2:05 P.M. (CT)

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The Kansas City Chiefs will continue their postseason run with an AFC Championship matchup against the Cincinnati Bengals at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on Sunday, January 30.

Fans can find important information and reminders regarding Sunday's game below.

Stadium Health and Safety

With the expiration of the KCMO mask ordinance, masks are no longer required in indoor spaces. However, per the KCMO Health Department recommendation, masks are encouraged. Unvaccinated staff members are directed to wear masks. A complete list of the health and safety protocols for GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium is available at www.chiefs.com/stadium/covid.

Game Entertainment

Grammy Award-winning singer-songwriter, actor and author Ashanti will sing the national anthem while the Fort Leonard Wood Joint Services Color Guard will present the colors, followed by a flyover of four A-10 Thunderbolts from Whiteman Air Force Base in Knob Noster, Missouri. The honorary coin toss captain will be former Chiefs Pro Football Hall of Fame guard Will Shields.

Parking and Traffic

Fans are reminded that parking and tailgating in stadium-controlled lots is for ticketed guests only and tailgating is prohibited during the game. The club reserves the right to confirm that guests have tickets prior to allowing them into parking lots. Parking lots for Sunday's game open at 9:30 a.m. All parking passes must be purchased in advance at www.chiefs.com/stadium/parking/ as payments will not be accepted at the parking tollgates. Be sure to access all tickets and passes through www.mychiefsaccount.com or the Chiefs Mobile app prior to arrival. Tickets and parking passes are mobile only and fans should save to their mobile wallet for easy access. Fans are encouraged to plan ahead and arrive early. Fans can track traffic through the KC Scout cameras at www.kcscout.com/ or can get real-time traffic updates on the WAZE app.

Tune In

Fans who are unable to attend Sunday's game can tune into WDAF-FM (106.5 The Wolf), the Home of the Chiefs Radio Network, as "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthus, former Chiefs WR Danan Hughes and sideline reporter Josh Klingler call the action. Tico Sports will produce a Spanish-language broadcast on KPRS Hot 103 Jamz HD2 (103.3.2 FM) and on KSSA La Ke Buena (105.9 FM) featuring Enrique Morales, Oscar Monterroso and sideline reporter Hannah Bassham. Both radio broadcasts are also available streaming on the Chiefs Mobile app within a 50-mile radius of the Kansas City metro area. Sunday's game will air on KCTV locally and will also be shown to a national audience on CBS. CBS's Jim Nantz, Tony Romo and Tracy Wolfson will deliver the call.

Stadium Gates and Mobile Entry

All GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium gates will open at noon for the 2:05 p.m. kickoff. Gates for guests with tickets on the CommunityAmerica Club Level will open at 11:30 a.m. Guests are reminded to access their mobile tickets and parking passes in advance of the event and add them to their mobile wallet for expedited entry. Hy-Vee and CommunityAmerica Credit Union are partnering to give away rally towels to the first 50,000 fans to enter the stadium on Sunday.

Ford Tailgate District

The Ford Tailgate District, located in Lot M on the north side of the stadium closest to Lancer Lane, is a free space for all fans to enjoy drink specials, food trucks, tailgating games and live entertainment leading up to kickoff of all Chiefs home games. The Ford Tailgate District will open at 10 a.m. on Sunday.

GEHA Deck

The Chiefs introduced the GEHA Deck in 2019 as the home for two gameday traditions – the Drum Honoree and the Tony DiPardo Spirit Leader. Chiefs Chairman and CEO Clark Hunt will serve as this week's Drum Honoree while former Chiefs running back Jamaal Charles and former Chiefs linebacker Derrick Johnson will be the game's Tony DiPardo Spirit Leaders.

Lamar Hunt Legacy Seat

To help celebrate the franchise's 60th season in 2019, the Kansas City Chiefs introduced the Lamar Hunt Legacy seat at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. For each home game, the club selected one honoree who embodied the spirit of Lamar Hunt and represents the four pillars of the Chiefs Mission: Win with Character, Unite our Community, Inspire our Fans and Honor Tradition. After being forced to skip the recognition due to reduced capacity in 2020, the club is now using the Lamar Hunt Legacy Seat to specifically honor a Chiefs Season Ticket Member at each home game. The two gold seats are located in Section 121 of the lower bowl, symbolically positioned under Lamar Hunt's name in the team's Ring of Honor.

This week's Lamar Hunt Legacy Seat honoree is Season Ticket Member Esmeralda Orosco. Orosco is a clinical laboratory scientist at a local children's hospital who has tested over 100,000 samples for Covid and was in the U.S. Army Reserve for eight years.

Hunt Family Foundation 50/50 Raffle

This week's 50/50 Raffle beneficiary will be the Hunt Family Foundation. Raffle tickets are priced at three for $5, 10 for $10 and a playoff special of 100 tickets for $20.

Fans who are not at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium on Sunday can also participate in the Hunt Family Foundation 50/50 Raffle by visiting www.chiefs.com/fans/5050raffle. Online sales are currently live, but fans must be located in the states of Missouri or Kansas at the time they purchase a ticket online. In-person raffle tickets will remain on sale through the end of the third quarter. The winning ticket will be announced in-stadium and posted online during the fourth quarter of the game and winners do not need to be present to win. Credit and debit cards will be the only form of payment accepted by 50/50 Raffle sellers.

Cashless

All concession stands and retail points of sale are completely cashless. In addition to traditional scan and chip reader options for credit/debit cards, all fixed points of sale offer mobile tap or scan payment options, including Chiefs Pay, Apple Pay, Google Pay and Samsung Pay. In-stadium hawkers and vendors are credit card only.

Safety and Security

The NFL's clear bag policy is in place for all events at GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium. Fans can visit www.chiefs.com/stadium/clearbag for important information on the clear bag policy and a complete list of permitted and prohibited items. Although the clear bag policy is in place, guests are encouraged to avoid bringing a bag into the stadium, if at all possible, to expedite their entry process. Fans can visit www.chiefs.com/stadium/prohibitedpermitteditems for a complete list of permitted and prohibited items.

If guests have questions or need assistance, including with accessible services, they can contact Fan Experience at (816) 920-4237 or by email at fanexperience@chiefs.com. Beginning at 9 a.m. on event day, guests can also text (816) 920-4237 with location and issue.
